

Participation in Formal and Informal Volunteering

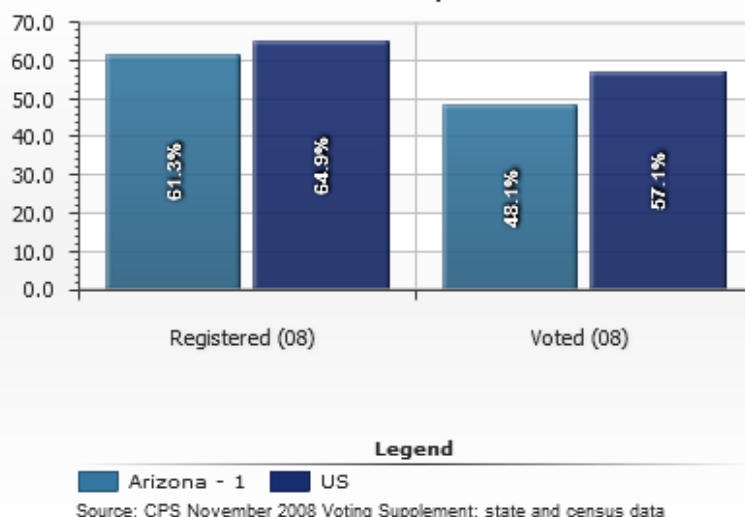

Source: CPS Volunteer Supplement, September 2007 - September 2009 (pooled)

Trends and Highlights for Civic Engagement in Arizona:

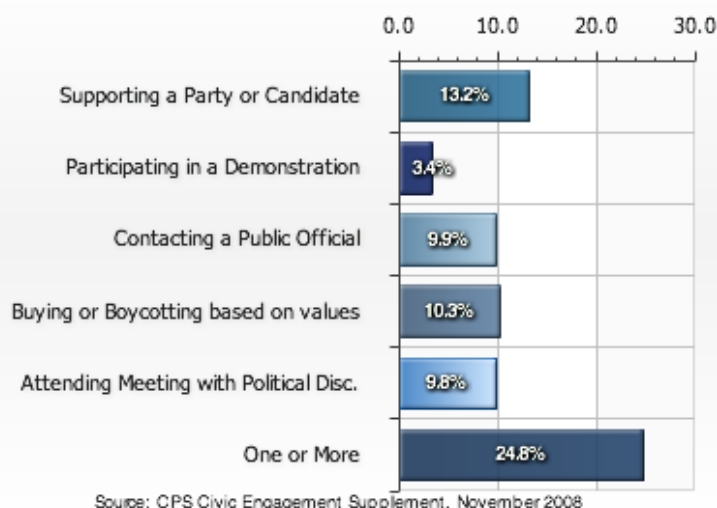

- In Arizona, 1.2 million adults volunteered with an organization (24.0%) - ranking them at number 44 among the 50 states and Washington, DC.
- 369 thousand residents in Arizona worked with neighbors to fix a community problem (7.6%).
- 49.5 percent of Arizona residents donated money, assets, or property with a combined value of more than $25 to charitable or religious organizations.
- 48.1 percent of residents in Arizona voted in the 2008 Presidential election- ranking them at number 49 among the 50 states and Washington, DC.
- The first two bullets average data from 2007 to 2009; the third bullet averages data from 2008 to 2009; and the last bullet on voting reflects single year data from 2008.
- Please visit the glossary at www.serve.gov/civic for more information on the terms listed within this profile.

To see more information, visit www.serve.gov/civic

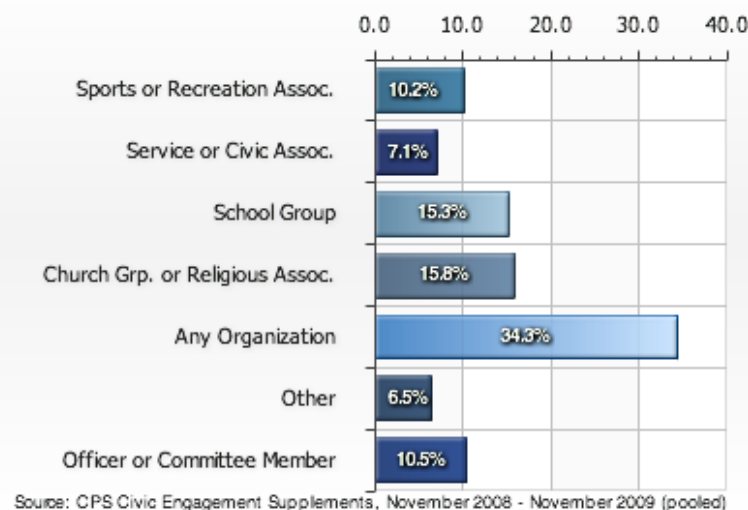

Electoral Participation

Political Action

Participating in a Group

Social Connectedness

